Drawings

Applicant is requested to provide a separate set of drawings for the present application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The claims are generally narrative and indefinite, failing to conform with current U.S. practice. They appear to be a literal translation into English from a foreign document and are replete with grammatical and idiomatic errors.

Claim 1, lines 4 and 8, the expression "and others" is confusing because it was not what it is referring to; lines 3-4, the expression "being said different parts hoops, connectors, sleeves, feet, and other" is not understood; line 7, the expression "one almost parallel to the next" is confusing; line 8, the expression "the before mentioned parts....and others" is not understood.

Claim 2, it was not clear what is "the mentioned holes".

Claim 3, lines 2-5 are extremely confusing.

Claim 4 is also very confusing.

Regarding claim 4, the phrase "for example" renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear whether the limitation(s) following the phrase are part of the claimed invention. See MPEP § 2173.05(d).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 2, and 4, as best understood, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by FR 2 370 407.

In view of the above rejection under 35 USC 112, claims 1, 2, and 4 appear to read on Figs. 1-7 of FR ('207).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 3, as best understood, appears to contain allowable subject matter and it would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. However, upon the clarification of claim 3 is made, a further comparison to prior art will be made.
